BALLOT TITLE: ABOLITION OF ALIMONY OBLIGATIONS.

BALLOT SUMMARY: This amendment modifies Article I of the Florida Constitution by providing that no person whose marriage has been legally dissolved in the state is subject to any type of alimony obligation as part of dissolution of marriage. The state would no longer recognize "alimony" which was historically based on the obligation of the husband to support his wife. This amendment recognizes the state constitutional rights of both husband and wife to privacy and equal protection.

FULL TEXT OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT:

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF FLORIDA THAT:

Article I of the Florida Constitution is hereby amended by the addition of the following:

Every person whose marriage has been dissolved shall not be encumbered by any type of governmental intrusion in the form of an alimony obligation to the former spouse. This section shall not be construed to affect a person's obligation to provide child support and maintain equal responsibility for minor children, or affect the equitable distribution of marital property.

This amendment shall take effect upon passage by the voters and apply to all past, current, and future petitions for dissolution of marriage involving requests for alimony.
